WO STORIES OF SHOOTING

an Claims He Fired in Self-De-.nsc-Witness Says There Was Absolutely No Provocation.

trehie Fane of Tyler, Tex., who was of through the stomach last Sunday night by L. M. Duncan, a colored man aployed as night watchman for the Kennedy Construction company, died at St. Mark's hospital at 9:45 o'clock Fri-

At noon today County Atty, Job P. Lyon said he was drawing up a complaint against Duncan, charging the negre with murder in the first degree, palait against nerge with nurder in the first degree, and that the complaint would be filed and that the complaint would be filed some time this afternoon. Mr. Lyon said he did not know who would sign the complaint other than that it would be a member of the police department. Chief Barlow stated that he did not know who would sign the document.

The shooting occurred on First North and Fifth West streets. Duncan claims that Fane insulted and later attempted to attack him with rocks, and that he shot in self defense. Duncan gave himself up after the shooting and was looked in the city jail, where he is at the present time. The negro had nothing to say this morning about the death of Fane, except the remark:

"Well, it's too bad; I'm sorry."

FANE'S DEPOSITION.

When it was discovered Friday evening that Fane could not recover, Asst. County Atty. Bowman went to the hospital and took a deposition from Fane.

 "Beleving that I am dying. I make this full statement: Sunday night, about 9 o'clock, March 13, 1910. Wood and I walked up to a fire on the street, surrounding which was a crowd of young boys and a long negro. We were at the fire not more than three or four seconds when the negro pulled his gun and shot two or three times at me without saying a word. One of the bulsts entered my abdomen. I ran almost 15 feet and fell, and then about 20 feet, and then I got up and walked to the Colorado house, from where I was taken to the police station. That same night, at the police station, I saw and dentified the negro who shot me; that is, the negro I saw at the station drongly resembled the man who shot me, and I thought he was the man; I Believing that I am dying, I make

James Woods was with Fane when he shooting occurred and his state-dents corroborate the story told by ne. Woods says he is the man who is the alternation with Duncan and if Fane had nothing to do with it. It is Woods who told the children they needs not play with a "nigger," and t was this statement that aroused busean and caused him to shoot.

do nothing in the case of Anthony Woods, the man arrested Wednesday for an alleged attempted assault upon the 6-year-old daughter of John Beck. After hearing statements from persons who witnessed the affair, Asst. County Atty. Bowman stated he could not issue a complaint as it would be impossible, under the circumstances, to make out a case against the man Woods was ordered released.

"We could not prove an overt act," said Mr. Bowman, "and therefore it would be useless to issue a complaint. Of course, if anything else comes up we can soon get the man, as he is now under $500 bond awaiting trial in the district court for a similar offense, but as this case stands we are helpless. Much as I regret it nothing can be done unless some one comes forward with evidence showing an overt act on the part of Woods,"

When the man was released from jail his face still showed the marks of Mrs. Kingdon's fingernalls, and he had a lump on the left side of the law, caused by a blow from one of the men who captured him.

Other Severe Nervous Disorde: Also Cured by the Tonic Treatment.

The first thing to do in the treatment of nervous troubles is to stop the caus of the trouble, if possible, whether it of the trouble, if possible, whether it is irregular living, worry, or whatever is may be. The next step is rest, recreation and the use of a good tonic. The nerves must be nourished and strengthened and, as they can receive their nour ishment only through the blood, the tonic must be a good blood builder.

Dr. Willisms' Pink Pills are the best tonic for nervous sufferers because they build up the blood and give the nerves the nourishment they need. In this way they rebuild and strengthen the over-that I was unable to continue at my work as dressmaker. I was very weak and my back ached continually. My stomach was so weak that I could eat nothing but light food and even then I would have pains and cramps. Gas formed on my stomach. I was short of breath and had palpitation of the heart. I was in bed for three months.

"At Davenport, Iowa, I was under doctors' care but received only temporary relief so gave them up. I then used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I had read of a case, similar to mine, in a booklet which was left at our house. When I began using the pills I had no strength at all and had lost a great deal in weight. I did not have to take the pills long before I felt better. I gave the pills a fair trial and was entirely cured. I am in good health now and shall always recommend Dr. Williams' shall always recommend Dr. Williams Pink Pills."

Maggie Tout Makes Tremendous Hit at the Salt Lake Theater

future fulfills what the present promises, which will all depend on the training and environment she enjoys, Miss Maggie Tout will take her place among the foremost ranks of American singers. It is not overstating the ase to say that she made a tremendous hit at the theater last evening. The audience, a fair sized turnout that ought to have been multiplied by three, was representative and critical, but it gave the singer an ovation on her appearance, and called her back after every number she sang, all in a fashion that told unmistakably how heavily she had scored.

The program was a most enjoyable one throughout. It was marked by an unconventionality, seldom seen on the stage in these days, and even by a touch of the old fashioned, which was none the less charming. These effects were produced by Miss Tout's rendering a verse of "Home, Sweet Home" outside the scenes before she appeared at all, and later by the rendition of the BARGAIN.

Miss Tout sang in French, Italian, and English, her best work being the "Nymphs et Sylvan" by Bemberg, "The Cuckoo Song" and the difficult "Villanelle," in which she ended on an effective high E flat. This was the closing number, but the audience steadily refused to leave their seats, and Miss Tout was made to respond with Tosti's "Good Bye." which she sang with a passion and fervor, delightful to listen to. Her duet with Mr. Tout, "Our Gondola," was another charming piece of work, and for this "The Restless Sea" encore had to be accorded.

She was well supported by her father. Mr. E. F. Tout, who shows very great improvement in his tenor singing since he last appeared in Salt Lake. His selections were "My Friend," "The Bedouin's Love Song," and the duets above mentioned. His easy method and pure tone were his principal characteristics, though it was quite refreshing to understand what a singer was singing about. Mr. Tout also had several recalls. The planist of the evening, Miss Carrie Browning, did capsible work throughout, both in her solos.

Special Announcement

There has been considerable interest manifested in the early closing movement. We have opposed early closing because we do not think conditions are ripe for it, and because a great number of people find it very inconvenient to do thier trading early, as is evidenced by our large Saturday night business.

Public sentiment being so strong, and as it seems impossible to have concerted action, we have decided to yield to the demand for early closing.

Beginning with the first Saturday in April this store will close at six o'clock, except from the second week in June to the second week in September, when the hour will be one o'clock p.m. Saturdays.
